TOP CPAS & LITIGATION SUPPORT PROFESSIONALS

Methodology:

Because accounting and financial specialists play a key role in many types of litigation, we asked for nominations of licensed, Florida CPAs and other professionals who have distinguished themselves in litigation support. Many of our Top CPAs & Litigation Support Professionals hold additional professional designations, such as Certified Fraud Examiner. We encourage readers to contact each professional for more information.

Sheri Fiske Schultz, Managing Partner of Fiske & Company, brings over 30 years of experience to her clients, offering both professional expertise and practical insight toward business valuations and litigation support services. In addition to being a licensed CPA, Sheri holds the designation of Accredited in Business Valuation and is Certified in Financial Forensics by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. She provides expert advice and counsel to both outside CPAs and attorneys representing clients in business litigation and family law where business valuation, lost profits and forensic accounting are involved. A frequent speaker on topics such as business valuation and forensic accounting, she also has broad-based tax experience in mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, estate issues and tax compliance. As first chair for the FICPA's Business Valuation/Litigation Section, she helped develop the Valuation Litigation Section in the State of Florida. Sheri has been honored by the AICPA with the ABV Champion of the Year Award. Sheri was also named a SFBJ Influential Business Woman, FICPA's Woman to Watch, "Key Partner" in Accounting by the SFBJ, and "Woman Extraordinaire" by Business Leader Magazine.
