Erica Rayter Takes on New Role as Forensic and Valuation Services Senior

Fiske & Company, a boutique women-owned accounting, financial forensics, valuation and litigation consulting firm, announced the addition of Erica Rayter as a Forensic and Valuation Services Senior.

“We are pleased to welcome Erica to our growing litigation support and forensic accounting practice group,” said Sheri Fiske Schultz, managing partner, Fiske & Company. “With COVID litigation backlog beginning to move, demand of litigation support and financial experts is increasing rapidly.”

In her new role, Rayter will be working with one of South Florida's most experienced forensic accounting departments, focusing on assignments related to shareholder disputes, lost profits, breach of contract, marital dissolutions, personal injury product liability and fraud investigations.

"For years, I have heard great things about Fiske, and I am eager for the opportunity to work closely with the firm's professionals," said Rayter.

Before joining Fiske, Rayter was a forensic accountant at another firm that focused on divorce matters and a staff accountant at a family office. She is skilled in analyzing complex personal and corporate financial statements and tax returns and performing financial tracing investigations.

She received a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Alabama at Birmingham and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Nova Southeastern University.

Rayter is based in Fiske's Fort Lauderdale office.

About Fiske & Company
